Chiropractor cost checklist

Use these steps from the article to get a clear chiropractor price before paying.

- [ ] Ask what the first appointment costs and what each follow-up costs.
- [ ] Ask how many sessions the condition is likely to need.
- [ ] Ask about extra costs such as X-rays, tests, equipment or supplements.
- [ ] Check the visit limit, referral and preauthorization rules with the insurer.
- [ ] Confirm that Medicare Part B pays only for spinal manipulation, not X-rays.
- [ ] Ask whether the clinic offers a cash discount or sliding scale.
- [ ] Pay per visit for the first few visits before buying a package.
- [ ] Read refund terms, interest rate and late fees before prepaying or financing.
- [ ] Use HSA or FSA money only for chiropractor visits that are medical care.
- [ ] Contact a medical provider right away for numbness, fever or loss of bladder control.

Notes

For general education only. Not a substitute for professional medical advice.